

Hylan, Craig And Smith on Tammany Slate

Tentative Allotment of 3 Big Offices Between Hearst and Murphy Held as Proof of Working Pact

Both Factions Satisfied

Probable Renomination of Comptroller Expected to Bridge Ticklish Situation

The Tammany ticket, judging from present indications, will be: Mayor—John F. Hylan. Comptroller—Charles L. Craig. President of the Board of Aldermen—Deputy Comptroller Henry Smith. This is the tentative allotment of the three big offices between Charles F. Murphy and William R. Hearst. The Tammany men say that they will not take less than the Comptroller and the President of the Board of Aldermen and the Hearst men say that as long as Mayor Hylan is renominated they will keep the peace.

Smith is No Surprise

The selection of Deputy Comptroller Henry Smith is no surprise to the organization. Nearly a year ago, after Comptroller Craig began warring on the Mayor and other members of the Board of Estimate, he stopped going to the board meetings. At the same time he induced Mr. Smith to accept appointment as First Deputy Comptroller. Immediately upon taking office Mr. Smith began to attend meetings of the board in place of the Comptroller. This arrangement continued until a very recent date, when the Tammany leaders persuaded Comptroller Craig to resume attendance at the board meetings, assuring him of their continued confidence in him and telling him that Tammany wanted to renominate him.

Henry Smith for years has been a favorite in Tammany Hall. He has an extensive law practice, possesses independence of judgment, belongs to prominent clubs, is an art collector, and all in all is a man of mark in Tammany Hall. He served as Park Commissioner in the last McClellan administration.

Asks Harding to Rebuke Pellagra Rumor Mongers

South Carolina Representative Urges President to Act Against Men Who Mised Him

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Representative Byrnes, of South Carolina, asked President Harding in a letter today to take "appropriate action toward officials who, by misrepresenting conditions, misled you into making the statement that parts of the South were actually menaced with famine and plague."

Replying to the President's letter of yesterday, in which Mr. Harding said that if investigation developed that reports had misrepresented conditions of official reputation would be desirable, Mr. Byrnes wrote:

"I thought you should know that the people of the South do not question the accuracy of the statement that pellagra may have increased in some one or in several states, but what they complain of is the statement that the entire South is actually menaced with famine and plague."

"The people of the South are conscious of the fact that your utterance was based upon information you believed to be reliable and impelled by the highest motive that can prompt the action of man."

Divorce Detective Arrested Goes After Evidence for Actress and Is Taken as Burglar

A descent upon the home of Max Hart, Broadway booking agent, in Douglaston Manor, Douglaston, L. I., by his wife and a private detective early yesterday resulted in the arrest of the detective, Louis Hart, of 425 East Eighty-sixth Street, on a charge of burglary, made by Max Hart.

Detective Hart said he had been employed by Mrs. Hart, who, before her marriage, was Madge Fox, an actress, to go with her to her husband's home to seek evidence for a divorce. With her and a friend, he went to Douglaston Manor, where Mrs. Hart entered the Hart home. He followed, he said, and Hart had him arrested.

Magistrate Miller, in the Long Island City court, paroled the accused detective until Tuesday.

Bridges Ticklish Situation

The renomination of Comptroller Craig bridges a rather ticklish situation for the Hearst-Tammany control of the city administration. The Comptroller is to be summoned by the Meyer investigating committee. In the temper that he found himself in a year ago, when he turned against Hylan and other members of the Board of Estimate, he would have proved an interesting and fruitful witness before the Meyer committee. His probable renomination by Tammany, after the Comptroller has made all manner of attacks and insinuations against Mayor Hylan, is one of the outstanding surprises of the present mayoralty campaign. It also is regarded in political circles as proof of a secret working agreement between William R. Hearst and Charles F. Murphy.

Incidentally, the election of Deputy Comptroller Smith, a Tammany should win, would insure Charles F. Murphy and his Wall Street friends peace of mind, inasmuch as it would mean insurance against the adoption of socialistic schemes that frequently find support by the Hearst papers. These are the considerations which weigh in the present plan to renominate Craig and nominate Mr. Craig's trusted lieutenant and an old-time Tammany favorite, Deputy Comptroller Henry Smith.

The Tammany Executive Committee will meet on Monday to issue the formal call for the holding of the primaries. This meeting marks the formal opening of the Tammany campaign.

Young Woman Missing From Bay State Line Boat

Disappears on Night Trip From Here; Believed To Be Miss Oates, of Long Island

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 30.—A stateroom on the Georgia, of the Bay State Line, occupied by Miss M. Oates, was found to be empty when the steamer reached here this morning, although clothing and other articles belonging to the young woman were scattered about the room.

It is thought that she slipped overboard during the night trip from New York and was drowned. In accordance with instructions found in a memorandum book in the stateroom, Mr. Oates, of Huntington, L. I., was notified, and a telegram was received from Sarah Oates, of that place, to-night, saying that the missing young woman probably was her sister, Maria.

Head of Leather Concern Missing in Smoky Blaze

Benjamin Kaplan, president of the Standard Artificial Leather Goods Company, was reported as missing yesterday after a fire which swept through the building housing his company at 3 Mercer Street.

An employee of the company saw him at his desk about 1 o'clock, a few minutes before the fire broke out, and no one could be found who saw him leave the building. Firemen washing down after the fire were unable to find any trace of him.

Smoke was given off by the fire in such dense volume that firemen were unable to enter the building until the fire virtually was extinguished. It drifted across Broadway and into Canal Street so thickly that several times the police stopped all traffic on those streets until a shift in the wind partly cleared them.

The three-story building was burned out. The damage is said to be more than $10,000.

$70,000 Gems Sewn in Coat

Fortune in Diamonds Found on Suspected Smuggler

CHICAGO, July 30.—Ripping open a small bag found sewed in a coat lining, Federal investigators to-day said they found smuggled unset diamonds and jewelry valued at $70,000. The coat, they said, belonged to Hyman Finerman, a Los Angeles jeweler, who was arrested yesterday charged with smuggling.

The find included three diamonds, each weighing about ten carats and valued together at $40,000.

When Finerman was arrested diamonds valued at $1,800 were found on his person. Arraigned on a charge of smuggling, he was held under bonds of $2,000.

Koenig to Call On Harding to Back Curran

(Continued from page one)

candidate," said Mr. Koenig. "Harmony is the watchword."

Byron R. Newton, former Collector of the Port, expressed the opposition of the coalitionists to Senator Calder's domination of the situation when he said:

"The purpose of this coalition movement is to find the man who will make the proper appeal to all the people. Our purpose is to defeat Hylan, not to elect a United States Senator."

None of the leaders seemed to have any clearer idea yesterday as to the real attitude of Jacob A. Livingston, the chairman of the Kings County Republican Executive Committee, in regard to Senator Livingston or other candidates. They expected that Mr. Livingston would be called upon to-morrow night to present himself at the meeting at the Commodore Hotel and show his hand.

Haskell Attacks Hylan Regime and Dry Rule

Judge Reuben L. Haskell, of Brooklyn, candidate for the straight Republican nomination for mayor in the primaries, yesterday issued a pre-campaign statement, denouncing the present Hylan administration and discussing the wet feature of the platform on which he intends to run, if nominated. He said that the announcement of his campaign for nomination in the Republican primaries would be officially issued the early part of this week.

"Of course this campaign involves as one of its issues a show-down on the question of opposition to prohibition and all blue laws restricting the personal liberties of the people," said Judge Haskell. "While this question of proper enforcement of prohibition and opposition to blue laws is an issue in this campaign of the utmost importance it will not be allowed to crowd out of consideration the fact that the next administration of the affairs of this city must make impossible a reputation of the gross incompetency, inefficiency, stupidity, graft and bur-

Lusk Expected To See Miller On Slush Fund

Majority Leader of Senate Reported Planning to Meet Governor and Explain Silver Service Gift

Executive Won't Comment

When the Governor returned here today after a tour of the institutions upstate, he was asked to comment on the Lusk silver service affair.

After a moment's silence he said: "I have no comment to make on the Lusk case. It is a subject on which I should not be called upon to comment. I will say, however, that I have the utmost confidence in the probity of Senator Lusk. The matter, apart from that, is not a subject upon which I am called to say anything."

It was suggested in some circles here that the reason for the Governor's reticence on the subject was that he did not want to discuss it until he had first hand information. It is said that

Lusk Expected To See Miller On Slush Fund

Majority Leader of Senate Reported Planning to Meet Governor and Explain Silver Service Gift

Executive Won't Comment

When the Governor returned here today after a tour of the institutions upstate, he was asked to comment on the Lusk silver service affair.

After a moment's silence he said: "I have no comment to make on the Lusk case. It is a subject on which I should not be called upon to comment. I will say, however, that I have the utmost confidence in the probity of Senator Lusk. The matter, apart from that, is not a subject upon which I am called to say anything."

It was suggested in some circles here that the reason for the Governor's reticence on the subject was that he did not want to discuss it until he had first hand information. It is said that

Lusk Expected To See Miller On Slush Fund

Majority Leader of Senate Reported Planning to Meet Governor and Explain Silver Service Gift

Executive Won't Comment

When the Governor returned here today after a tour of the institutions upstate, he was asked to comment on the Lusk silver service affair.

After a moment's silence he said: "I have no comment to make on the Lusk case. It is a subject on which I should not be called upon to comment. I will say, however, that I have the utmost confidence in the probity of Senator Lusk. The matter, apart from that, is not a subject upon which I am called to say anything."

It was suggested in some circles here that the reason for the Governor's reticence on the subject was that he did not want to discuss it until he had first hand information. It is said that

Lusk Expected To See Miller On Slush Fund

Majority Leader of Senate Reported Planning to Meet Governor and Explain Silver Service Gift

Executive Won't Comment

When the Governor returned here today after a tour of the institutions upstate, he was asked to comment on the Lusk silver service affair.

After a moment's silence he said: "I have no comment to make on the Lusk case. It is a subject on which I should not be called upon to comment. I will say, however, that I have the utmost confidence in the probity of Senator Lusk. The matter, apart from that, is not a subject upon which I am called to say anything."

It was suggested in some circles here that the reason for the Governor's reticence on the subject was that he did not want to discuss it until he had first hand information. It is said that

Lusk Expected To See Miller On Slush Fund

Majority Leader of Senate Reported Planning to Meet Governor and Explain Silver Service Gift

Executive Won't Comment

When the Governor returned here today after a tour of the institutions upstate, he was asked to comment on the Lusk silver service affair.

After a moment's silence he said: "I have no comment to make on the Lusk case. It is a subject on which I should not be called upon to comment. I will say, however, that I have the utmost confidence in the probity of Senator Lusk. The matter, apart from that, is not a subject upon which I am called to say anything."

It was suggested in some circles here that the reason for the Governor's reticence on the subject was that he did not want to discuss it until he had first hand information. It is said that

FRANKLIN SIMON & CO

A STORE OF INDIVIDUAL SHOPS FIFTH AVENUE, 37TH AND 38TH STREETS NEW YORK

Present for Madame and Mademoiselle

THE BLOUSE GOWN

Introducing a New and Interesting Silhouette for Fall

Gowns for Madame

OF CANTON SILK CRÉPE, CRÉPE SHEBA, METEOR, POIRET TWILL OR TWILLCORD

WHAT is more picturesque and youthful than the blouse of the Quartier Latin and from this blouse Mademoiselle takes her fashion inspiration for the first frock of the autumn season—artful as Art itself—emphasizing the boyish slenderness of the modern young woman—its success is assured with its first presentation—a fashion destined to influence and enrich the winter mode.

45.00 to 165.00

MISSES' GOWN SHOP—Second Floor

Gowns for Mademoiselle

OF CANTON SILK CRÉPE, CRÉPE SHEBA, METEOR, POIRET TWILL OR TWILLCORD

THE bloused waistline is the password to the autumn mode whose watchword is the lengthened skirt, and the result is a silhouette that subtly suggests old Russia, imbued with the chic of the Rue de la Paix, a vogue that permits individuality, with a waistline whose location is not a matter of a fashion but a matter of choice.

59.50 to 285.00

WOMEN'S GOWN SHOP—Third Floor

With Sleeves That Are Unusual in Fashion and Skirts That Are Unexpected in Length The Blouse Gown Establishes its Claim to Smartness and Distinction

Franklin Simon & Co.

Franklin Simon & Co.

A Store of Individual Shops FIFTH AVE.—37th and 38th Sts.

FOR PHOTOGRAPHS OF THESE COATS SEE PAGE SEVEN OF THE GRAPHIC SECTION OF THIS NEWSPAPER.

AUGUST FUR SALE

Offering the latest Fur Fashions for Winter 1921-1922 at the Lowest Prices at which High Grade Furs have been sold in a number of years. These Prices will prevail until August 31st only.

HUDSON SEAL COAT (dyed muskrat) 40 in. long, collar and cuffs of skunk. Last season's price $450 295.00

HUDSON SEAL COAT-WRAP (dyed muskrat) 48 in. long, bloused model; Mandarin sleeves. Last season's price $850 475.00

CARACUL COAT 40 in. long, flared skirt; collar of squirrel or Kolinsky. Last season's price $695 450.00

SQUIRREL AND SCOTCH MOLE COAT 45 in. long, bloused model combined with taupe squirrel. Last season's price $1250 850.00

GENUINE RUSSIAN ERMINE WRAP 46 in. long, with draped back and deep crush collar. Last season's price $1950 1250.00

PERSIAN LAMB COAT 45 in. long, collar of gray squirrel, skunk or Kolinsky. Last season's price $595 395.00

FEMININE FUR SHOP—Fourth Floor